JEFFERSONTOWN, KY.

BREVITIES

Hopewell School Closed.
Miss Vestina Greenwell, of Anchorage, has closed her school at Hopewell and returned to her home.

State Fair Dates.
The Seventh Annual Kentucky State Fair will be held at Louisville, Ky., September 17th to 19th, inclusive.

Services at Lutheran Church.
The Rev. C. A. Wilson, Ph. D., of the Third English Lutheran church of Louisville, will preach here Sunday afternoon, March 7, at 2:30 at the Lutheran church.

Services at Christian Church.
Rev. Clarence Vincent will preach at the Christian church next Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Bible class Saturday at 7 p. m. All are invited to attend these services.

Opens Office.
Dr. Ansel L. Thomas, formerly of Nelson county and a well known physician, has opened offices in the Flat Building, Louisville. Dr. Thomas is a deserving young man and will doubtless succeed in his chosen profession.

Ice Cream Social.
An ice cream social will be given by the School Improvement League at Kennedy school, Beargrass station, on Saturday, March 6, from 3 to 10 o'clock p. m. Tickets will be sold at 15 cents. A large crowd should attend, as a good time is assured and the proceeds go to a most worthy cause.

Coffee Social.
Eight-mile House, March 1.—The Improvement League of Progress school, District 18, will give a coffee social, for the benefit of relieving the crowded condition of the school, on March 11. The social will be in the afternoon and night, hours being from 4 to 10 p. m. All friends and patrons of the school and league are cordially invited.

Married Near Worthington.
The marriage of Mrs. Lillie B. Clore and Mr. Nuz, of Bullitt county, was privately solemnized at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. J. T. Habbitt, near Worthington, Saturday, Feb. 27, at 3:30 p. m. Rev. Geo. Froh, of the M. E. church officiated. They left immediately after the ceremony en route to the home of the groom. This is the second venture of both on the matrimonial sea. May they have a peaceful and happy voyage.

Improvement League Organized.
Quite an interesting meeting was held at Hopewell school, District No. 70, on Friday afternoon, Feb. 26, by Dr. S. O. Wetherby, of Middletown, and Mr. Harry Hummel, A School Improvement League was formed, with Mrs. C. W. Seitz, as president, Mrs. Geo. W. Finley, vice president, and Miss Susie Potts, secretary and treasurer. Dr. Wetherby also gave a very interesting talk on "Education in the District Schools."

Clock 129 Years Old.
Mr. E. P. Spurling, of Fern Creek, has in his shop for repair an old grandfather's clock which was made in 1770. It is the property of Mr. Robert Foster, who is about 78 years old. Mr. Foster says the clock has always kept good time, and although having passed through a fire and there being only the running works left, it still runs and ticks as before. Mr. Spurling is having a new case made and will soon have the old time piece in good shape.

Rare Opportunity.
Young man or young woman, you can secure a good position by preparing for ore. Take a business course. You can do this at a reduced price by seeing The Jeffersonian. We have scholarships for sale in the leading colleges. Write, or call Cumb, phone 36-3 (free Louisville and county service) for further information. If

To-morrow Night!
Don't fail to attend the Improvement League meeting at Jeffersontown public school-house to-morrow night at 7 o'clock. Mrs. Chas. P. Weaver and Dr. S. D. Wetherby will speak.

Prominent Attorney Weds.
Judge John S. Kelly, of Bardonia, and Mrs. Myrtle Troutman McKay, of Boston, Nelson county, were united in marriage Tuesday evening at the Galt House in Louisville. Judge Kelly is one of the most prominent attorneys in the state, and is well known in Jefferson county, where he has relatives and where he formerly resided. Mrs. Kelly is also well known in Jefferson county and has many friends here.

Changes on the Southern.
The following changes in time on the Southern railway went into effect Feb. 21:
No. 2, west a. m. train now arrives at 7:55 a. m.; does not stop.
No. 1, east, due at 8:21 a. m.; stops.
No. 10, west, due at 10:45 a. m.; stops.
No. 9, east, due at 5:35 p. m.; no change.
No. 2, west, due at 8:00 p. m.; flag stop.
No. 23, east, due at 8:41 p. m.; does not stop.

Services at Newburg Christian Church.
Next Lord's Day, March 7th, we expect to have an unusual large attendance at Sunday-school at the Newburg Christian church. We will have extra music, and an interesting session. Come, and bring an offering as the collection will go to make our centennial offering. A centennial offering only comes once in a life time so let us give liberally.

Services at Lutheran Church.
The Rev. C. A. Wilson, Ph. D., of the Third English Lutheran church of Louisville, will preach here Sunday afternoon, March 7, at 2:30 at the Lutheran church.

Valuable Dog.
Mr. Jacob Zeitz, of near Hikes Point, has a setter dog that he justly proud of. Mr. Zeitz lives about one quarter of a mile from the Jeffersontown electric line, and in spite of walking that line he has himself every afternoon to get his evening paper, he sends his dog. Those coming out from the city on the 2 o'clock car will find that canine running down the road to the gate where the conductor throws the paper. The dog knows which car to meet and invariably gets the paper and, if Mr. Zeitz is not at home to welcome him, places it in its regular place. The dog is not for sale.

Interesting Meeting To-morrow Night.
The Jeffersontown School Improvement League will hold a very interesting meeting at the school-house to-morrow (Friday) night, beginning at 7 o'clock. Mrs. Chas. P. Weaver, of Louisville, who is so well known all over the state for her work in school matters, will be here and deliver an address. Dr. S. D. Wetherby, of Middletown, will also address the meeting. These speakers are well acquainted with the needs of the evening and are very entertaining. A large crowd will, no doubt, greet them. Do not forget the time—7 o'clock to-morrow evening. Every body cordially invited to attend. There will be no charge for admission and no collection taken.

"The Servant in the House."
Henry Miller's Associate Players will present Charles Ham Kennedy's play "The Servant in the House" in Louisville at Macaulay's Theatre for a three days' run engagement beginning Thursday evening, March 4, with matinee on Saturday. This is the play which created such a remarkable sensation in New York last spring and summer and which played to capacity for ten weeks at Powers' Theatre in Chicago at the beginning of the present season. It has been hailed by the leading critics of the country as the most remarkable play produced within the memory of the present generation. The New York Evening Post calls it "the greatest play of the generation." The New York Times pronounces it "a sensation." The New York Sun proclaims it "a masterpiece." The Chicago News calls it "the most beautiful play of all ages." The Chicago Tribune says it is "a work of art that is truly enough and simple enough to touch the heart of the world." The Chicago Record-Herald says "it is a work for the world to see and ponder upon." The lofty character of this comedy drama in which the central figure is recognized as a reincarnation of the Christ, necessitates for its proper interpretation practically an altar cast. For this reason the play will not be entrusted to road companies, but is being presented only in centrally located cities by Mr. Miller's Associate Players. The re-engagement in Louisville is arranged specially for the accommodation of theatre-goers in nearby cities. The management of Macaulay's is giving special attention to mail orders which will be filled in the order of their receipt, when accompanied by remittance. The prices range from 25 cents to $1.50.

Spring School Begins Monday.
The six months term of Jeffersontown school will expire to-morrow and we are authorized to state that the school will continue for three months with Prof. A. A. Cannady and Miss Louise Owens as teachers, as heretofore. We understand that the teachers have given general satisfaction and that the patrons are pleased for the spring term. Sixty pupils will start in Monday at 8:00 per month, and it is hoped that all the patrons of the district will send their children to school that the present enrollment will not drop off. The Improvement League meets at the school-house to-morrow night, and a large crowd is expected to attend.

Kentucky's Governors.
An opportunity offered Kentuckians to secure all the portraits of Kentucky's Governors free with the Jeffersonian.

During the year 1900 we propose to give to all who subscribe for twelve months a 100 edition of the Kentucky Governors' Wall Atlas.

Portraits of every Kentucky Governor, some very rare, one of them the only one in existence. Nine other maps.

The very latest map of Kentucky, especially engraved at a cost of $3,500. Facts and figures and interesting statistics of all United States Possessions, Flags and Coats of Arms.

Portraits of the United States Presidents. The great Panama Canal Zone. A page is given over to historical Kentucky from formation of the State to 1900.

A Historical and Political Directory of Kentucky. Presidential Vote. State Officials. Area and Population. United States Senators. Chief Justices.

Speakers of Kentucky House. Congressional, Judicial and Railroad Commissioners' Districts. Democratic and Republican State Central Committees and State Executive Committees.

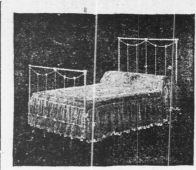

Central Districts. Counties of Kentucky, when made and from which Counties, Area and Population.

The Atlas alone is worth at least $1.50, yet you can secure it without cost.

The offer is for old as well as new subscribers. Everybody should read a daily newspaper, as well as the county paper.

The way to get the Atlas is to subscribe for The Jeffersonian together with the Louisville Evening Post for one year. The price of the Atlas and both papers is only $3.50 per year.

Call at our office and see this magnificent Atlas, or send for circular giving full description. THE JEFFERSONIAN, Jeffersontown, Ky.

A Quarter Million Dollar Distribution!
OF
FURNITURE, CARPETS, RUGS
HOME FURNISHINGS

Manufacturers Lose Their Nerve
THE PUBLIC BENEFITS

THE public of Louisville and the entire states of KENTUCKY, OHIO, INDIANA and adjacent SOUTHERN TERRITORY will again benefit by another colossal purchase which was recently made by the James Greene Furniture Company amounting to a QUARTER OF A MILLION DOLLARS' WORTH OF MANUFACTURERS' SURPLUS STOCKS, consisting of furniture, carpets, rugs, curtains, stoves and household goods of every description. This is without question the greatest purchase that was ever made by any furniture establishment in the UNITED STATES. The great sale given a year ago by the JAMES GREENE FURNITURE COMPANY was a most WONDERFUL SALE, and a bargain giving event that was the talk of the country for months thereafter. The sale this year involves a much greater purchase which was bought at practically 20% LESS THAN THE BIG MANUFACTURERS' PURCHASE OF A YEAR AGO. *It matters not how many hundred miles you reside from Louisville this will certainly be an opportunity for you to save from $25.00 to $250.00 in buying an outfit for your home. Never before in the history of furniture and carpet buying were such low prices quoted. Our reason for giving the public, at large, the benefit of our big purchase is namely, to attract 10,000 new patrons to our establishment. During this big sale which will be the largest sale of FURNITURE, CARPETS, RUGS, ETC., that was ever GIVEN in the UNITED STATES, during the entire ten-day sale all profits will be entirely swept away. It is our yearly offering to the people, and we propose making it such a real sacrifice and bargain feast as will amaze the public. Even if you live at a distance of 500 to 600 miles your Mail Orders will receive the same prompt attention as a visit from you in person. Understand, however, that all MAIL ORDERS MUST REACH OUR ESTABLISHMENT AT LOUISVILLE, NOT LATER THAN THE MORNING OF THE 15TH OF MARCH. We hereby agree to PAY THE FREIGHT ON ANY PURCHASE TO ANY TOWN OR CITY WITHIN A RADIUS OF 600 MILES FROM LOUISVILLE, KY. Anything bought by Mail Order will be packed carefully and shipped to you, packing and freight charges will be paid by us. This big furniture and carpet sale presents an opportunity to these who are thrifty, to those to whom the saving of a dollar is equivalent to a dollar earned. The great values we gave one year ago were the sensation of the day, but we wish to go on record as saying that the sale this year, our Second Annual Manufacturers' Outlet Sale, which starts on Wednesday, March 10th, at 8:30 A. M., will make any and all other furniture sales pale into insignificance. It will be a bargain jubilee, and a furniture feast for judicious buyers, such as was never given before by any other establishment, throughout the United States. The banks, the savings banks only pay 3% on money. During this sale your money will practically earn 80% to 40% profit for you in the purchasing of furniture, carpets, rugs, and household needs. This will be a premier effort in value giving on furniture, carpets, etc., such as the public will long remember. The James Greene Furniture Building is now closed in order to get this great volume of home furnishings in readiness for the big opening days sale. The store will remain CLOSED MARCH 8TH, ON MONDAY AND TUESDAY, MARCH 9TH. The sale STARTS PROMPTLY ON WEDNESDAY MORNING, MARCH 10TH, AT 8:30 A. M. BE CAREFUL, AND BE SURE YOU FIND THE RIGHT PLACE. TAKE ANY MARKET ST. CAR AND GET OFF AT 42-42 1/2 E. MARKET ST., LOUISVILLE, KY., and look for the big Green and White Signs reading JAMES GREENE'S MANUFACTURERS' OUTLET FURNITURE SALE. Ask any street car conductor who will direct you to our store. REMEMBER THE OPENING DATE, WHICH IS MARCH 10TH, ON WEDNESDAY AT 8:30 A. M. Be here on the opening day, or on one of the special ten day sale days, and secure your share of the many bargains offered. Prepare accordingly, and you will save many dollars on furniture, carpets, rugs, curtains and your household needs. REMEMBER THAT THIS SALE ONLY LASTS TEN DAYS, beginning on WEDNESDAY MORNING, MARCH 10TH, AT 8:30 A. M., positively ending on Saturday night, March 20th. If you cannot come in person, then send your order by mail which will have our immediate attention. In justice to your pocketbook don't miss this sale. SUCH OPPORTUNITY IS BUT SELDOM OFFERED.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP.

Our subscribers will find a favor by sending in reports of stock and land sales for publication in this column.

Among the purchases made at the Duroc sale of A. W. Harris & Sons, Louisville, were:

- Duchess 17th, farrowed December, 1907, J. A. Pound, Jeffersontown, Ky., $38.
- Classic C, farrowed June, 1903, L. C. Oetting, Jeffersontown, Ky., $30.
- Sow, farrowed, December, 1907, J. P. Poudas, Jeffersontown, Ky., $23.
- Sow, farrowed December, 1907, M. T. Adams, Harrods Creek, Ky., $20.
- Duchess 11th, farrowed November, 1907, Redding and Gray, Harrods Creek, Ky., $21.

Powhatan Stock Farm, Pewee Valley, purchased the bay brood mare, eight years old, "Lillian Preston," daughter of the first thousand dollar three-year-old, "Queen of the May." This mare was bought from Jake Robinson, Nashville, Ky., and is heavy in foal to Rex Pearson.

Louisville people are still looking for country places and the sale of a farm containing forty-five acres of land and a nice residence was made to Charles Ross, of Louisville. It is located near Glenmore on the Louisville and Eastern electric line, and was formerly owned by Mrs. Edith Talbot. Mr. Ross paid $15,000 for the property and will move to it in the spring. It is his intention to operate a dairy and poultry farm.—Farmers Home Journal.

The top price of the mid-winter sale of the Kentucky Sales Co. at Lexington was $1,000 paid by J. McKinney, of Richmond, Ky., for Lord Bourbon, consigned by Lawrence Jones, of Anchorage.

L. D. Dorsey, President of Kentucky Sheep Breeders' Association, has secured from the American Southern Breeders' Association a special premium of $25 to be awarded at Kentucky State Fair, in September next, to the best pen of four registered Southern lambs shown and awarded by exhibitor a resident of Kentucky. Mr. Dorsey expects to secure a premium of like amount from the Shropshire Breeders' Association, and it is likely the Hampshire Association will offer special premium for this breed. These specials should stimulate breeders to make a fine exhibit of Kentucky bred sheep.

Mr. Wm. Hughes will move his engine from Herford to Goosey to the Bonnyville farm, near Lakeland, this week, where he will build two large tobacco barns.

Mr. Frank Ludwig, of Louisville, has bought a nice building site on Mr. John Frey, of Buchel, and will erect a nice cottage. Heard & Campbell, the real estate agents, of Louisville, made the sale.

Mr. Toos Hoke has sold his farm north of Jeffersontown to Mr. E. R. Dick, of Louisville. The deal was effected by Beard & Campbell, real estate agents. Mr. Dick will probably build soon.

George Young, a farmer, four miles from Louisville, on the Preston street road, Monday declined an offer of over $100 for a fine Jersey cow. When he went out into the field Tuesday he found that the cow had died during the night.

Chas. D. Tyler, of Jeffersontown, has purchased from Price Hudson his eight-room dwelling and 180 acres of land near the Jefferson County Fair Grounds; price $19,000. Mr. Tyler will remove to the farm in a few days.

KOSMOSDALE.

March 1.—Dr. W. H. Parsons has returned from Pineville and Paducah, where he visited his mother and other relatives.

Messrs. J. Fred Grobe, of Kansas City, Mo., and A. B. Leeb, of Allen-town, Penna., and Miss Belle Barnett, of this place, were entertained at dinner Sunday by Miss Coco and Thelma Brashear at their lovely home at West Point.

Rev. Wallace of the Seminary filled the pulpit here Sunday in the absence of Rev. Hoagland.

Rev. Conkling of the Christian church at Valley Station preached at the hall last Sunday afternoon.

Messrs. and Mesdames Clarence, Lucie and Henry Ritchie, Misses Sadie Ritchie and Mary Ann Ritchie, of H. K. Altop, W. L. Nall and J. Rogers attended the funeral of Mrs. Thos. Watts at Muldraugh last Thursday.

Miss Hallie Barnett spent Friday in Louisville.

Mrs. Nannie Allison, of Vine Grove, is the guest of Mrs. W. L. Nall.

Miss Jessie Altop was the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. C. Allen, Sunday.

A number of young people from the Valley and Pleasure Ridge Park neighborhoods were here at the skating skating party Friday evening.

Miss Lizzie Ditt, of West Point, spent several days last week with her sister, Mrs. Clarence Ritchie.

David Jackson, daughter of McKinney, Tenn., arrived at his home at West Point Saturday and will remain in Kentucky for several weeks. He will visit relatives at this place and Meador before his return.

Dr. A. B. Applegate followed a land can in his cellar last Saturday and broke two ribs.

Dr. E. J. Taylor is driving a cat from the cellar when he slipped. His injuries, though painful, are not serious.

The river is falling fast at this point, and the high water, not having reached the 1907 mark.

In Memoriam.

In loving remembrance of Mr. Richard Potts, who departed this life three months ago. He and his wife had lived together over thirty years. Now God has called his angel home to be with Him forever. He leaves a wife, two sons and two daughters to mourn his loss. His home and his family are his glory and his hope to meet with him again in heaven.

In eighteen days after that dear father and husband departed this life, one of his daughters followed him. She said she was ready to go. How hard it was for her teacher and schoolmate to bid her farewell, but all hope to meet her in heaven. Loved ones in that glorious time are better.

No sorrow, pain or death to them will come.

The silver lining we can see already.

The glorious, hallowed radiance from that home.

"Thou blessed thought that in that day we shall meet them on our pilgrimages to home."

A precious one from us is gone.

A voice we loved is stilled.

Angels are waiting to receive him.

That never can be filled.

A loving husband and father is gone and grief is the loss sustained, but we hope to meet the ones we love in heaven.

One who loved them.

Notice, Stockman!

It will soon be time for horse and jack cards, posters, etc. Remember, The Jeffersonian is well equipped for this class of printing. As we can save you money, and as we have the only county job printing office, we expect your trade. All work guaranteed.

FISHERVILLE.

March 3.—Mrs. Lillian Joyce is spending a few days in Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Smith spent Sunday with Mrs. Smith's sister, Mrs. Dudley Dale, near Elk Creek. Mr. Dale, who is ill at his home, is slightly improved.

Mrs. Lee Curry was the guest of relatives near Middletown Tuesday.

Misses Katie Bess and Caruth Nichols have returned after attending the county fair given by Miss Kettie Bots at Forrest.

Mrs. Chas. Dale and Mrs. Jas. Smith were the guests of Mrs. S. W. Dale at Long Run Friday.

Miss Alice Gilliland is visiting friends in Louisville.

Miss Cleo Nicholson is visiting her sister, Mrs. Winsor, at Jeffersontown.

Mrs. Winsor's daughter, Elizabeth, has been very ill, but is greatly improved.

Miss Annie Morehead spent Saturday and Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Cassie.

Miss Caruth Nicholson has returned home after a week's visit to the home of her mother, near Lakeland.

Mr. J. B. Imbrie, who has spent the last ten years roughing it in this vicinity, has taken the position of book keeper with the Belmont Nutwood distilleries in Louisville. Mr. Imbrie says the only hard feature about his job is that he keeps the bottle under lock and key.

Mr. J. B. Wilson spent Sunday at the "Cedars." Since his last visit Mr. Wilson has sprouted a very beautiful mustache.

SOUTH PARK.

March 2.—Our new road supervisor, J. B. Sanders, has plenty to do, the high water carried away or moved off their foundations, and all the small bridges, and damaged very much of the roads by wash outs.

Mann Crandall, of Jeffersonville, spent Saturday night with Sam Armstrong.

Rev. E. D. Bogges filled his appointment at Mt. Holly Sunday, text John 3:16.

Mrs. Mary Snawder and Miss Mary Vance spent Sunday with Mrs. Betty Joyce.

Mrs. Priscilla Riley, of Kimbrough, spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. W. W. Hill.

L. R. Sanders has been confined to his bed for some time, and is very sick.

Mrs. Mattie Fisher spent Thursday with Mrs. John Maple.

Mr. J. B. E. Y. Farmer spent Sunday with P. D. Farmer and wife.

C. R. Augustus and wife spent Sunday with J. B. Sanders and wife.

Frank Arnold sold 66 acres to Gus Probst.

Fred Stone sold 9 acres to John Probst.

BRUSH RUN.

March 1.—We are glad to welcome March 1st, and see the little lambs skipping around so playfully.

The little village of Malott, which was overlooked by high water, Sunday, is booming again. School, two stores, a mill and blacksmith shop and everybody busy.

We are glad to say that our new road supervisor has made an effort to move the roads back here, for it is almost impossible to travel over them since the high water.

Mr. Hampton Bishop, who worked so faithfully in rescuing the flood sufferers of Malott, has moved his home to high ground.

VALLEY STATION.

Feb. 27.—Miss Medora Miller has returned from a visit with relatives in Fort Worth, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Stonestreet left Tuesday for Dallas, Texas. They expect to make a visit of six weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hawley, and return via Alabama.

Miss L. M. Campbell, class of the Christian church, gave a George Washington entertainment on Feb. 26. The program was very entertaining and the large audience enjoyed it very much.

Miss Lydia McCullough, a former resident of this place, has returned home, after making a visit of several weeks with her many friends.

Mr. Will Stonestreet and friends are making an extended trip in Florida.

The Ladies Aid, of Bethany church, will meet at Mrs. E. R. McCallister's this week.

The Training Class of the Christian church, which met last week with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dodge, had a Spelling Bee of Biblical names. It was very instructive and each side was doing their best to out spell the other. It is still a tie.

The Grell cars were the only ones of all the interurban lines leading from Louisville, on which traffic was not suspended during the heavy rains and floods during the past week.

Mrs. W. B. Lyons, who has been very ill with pneumonia, is now convalescent.

Miss Clara B. Knadler, Mrs. Bette K. Howard and daughter, Allen, were the guests of Mr. J. A. Wyatt and family Friday.

Mrs. Mary Swindler entertained several friends last week.

LONG RUN.

March 1.—Mr. J. A. Justice spent last Friday in Louisville.

Mrs. Leonidas Webb spent Thursday in Simpsonville.

Miss Maude Hackleman spent the week-end with Miss Beatrice Morris.

Miss Elma Gatewood is visiting her grandparents, Mrs. and Mrs. C. T. Cowherd last week.

Mr. Earl Bryant spent Saturday in Louisville.

Mrs. W. B. Lyons, who has been very ill with pneumonia, is now convalescent.

Mrs. J. G. Morris entertained dinner Sunday the following: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Cochran, Misses Verna and Gladys Cochran, of a Greathouse, Maude Hackleman, Messrs. Howard Shirley, Dewey and Russell Cochran.

Jeffersontown Cemetery.

To whom it may concern: It is the request of the trustees that every lot holder contribute one day's work, or more, for beautifying the cemetery. If you can't come, please give as many dollars as you feel able; it will be gladly received and spent for a good cause. Come prepared on the 4th day of March, 1909, to meet the hedge and pine trees between the cemetery and the Seatonsville road, on the 10th to grade, and on the 18th and 20th to take up the broomsedge. The rest of the work will be by contract. When this improvement is completed, what has been done and the amount collected will be published in the Jeffersonian.

Please don't neglect your duty; show some respect for the dead. This improvement will cost a great deal. Don't forget the dates; try and come. By order of the trustees.

JOHN BUSHART,
HARVEY STOUT.

PRESTONIA.

Feb. 24.—John C. Sale, aged sixty-two years, died at his home near Highland Park Sunday at 5:45 p. m. He was stricken Friday while walking in the yard. He called his wife when she arrived he never regained consciousness. This was the second stroke, the first being in October, 1905. Mr. Sale was a native of Berlin, Germany, and came to Jeffersontown three years ago from the west side. For years he conducted a grocery seven miles out on the Preston Street road and amassed considerable money. He was a devout member of St. Leo's Roman Catholic church at Highland Park. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Hannah Moss, two brothers and two sisters. The funeral was conducted at St. Leo's church and interment was in St. Leo's cemetery.

Crocus and hyacinths are in full bloom, also sprays and pussy willow trees in the yard at Mrs. Sallie P. Durrett's. This is more than a month in advance for these flowers.

Jefferson County Farm of 36 Acres

Located 9 miles south of Louisville, Ky., 11 miles southwest of Bardonia pike and electric car line, Fern Creek division, Waterson Station, at auction

Tuesday, March 9, 1909, AT 10:30 A. M., ON THE PREMISES.

This farm is located on what is generally known as Meadell Lane, and is in a state of fine cultivation. General assortment of fruits, embracing apples, peaches, pears, cherries, blackberries and strawberries (2 acres of the latter). The improvements consist of a four room frame cottage dwelling, also 2 room cottage on the farm, suitable for a tenant. Large barn and all necessary outbuildings. Fine well of drinking water in the yard and a never-failing spring within 40 yards of residence. This farm is gently undulating, but a fine producer. It must be seen to be appreciated. The neighborhood will compare favorably with any in the State. My reasons for selling are that I am a mechanic and think it will be to my interest to move in or near the city.

TERMS.—One-half cash, remainder in 1 and 2 years, interest and late. Possession within 30 days from date of sale. Purchaser will be required to make a cash deposit as evidence of good faith.

FIRE! LIGHTNING! PHENIX INSURANCE COMPANY

OF BROOKLYN, N. Y. Established 1853 Assets $9,414,456

The Largest and Best Fire Insurance Company in the United States.

The great San Francisco conflagration resulted in many fire insurance companies breaking. It was a case where the strongest survived. The Phenix, with millions behind it, was one to survive, paying all losses promptly. THERE ARE COMPANIES STILL FAILING, but the Phenix is now stronger than ever.

Is your property insured against loss by fire, lightning, tornadoes or windstorms? If not you should see me at once and have a policy written in a strong company—one that NEVER FAILS.

A share of your patronage is earnestly solicited. For further information write or call Cumb. Phone 36-3 (free country service), and I will be pleased to call and see you.
